From the Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

I wish to thank everyone who has been so helpful in the transition period between Rick and myself. We have a good Council thanks to all of you that work hard to make it that way.

We are entering the summer season which means a lot of activities for us as a council and as families. The annual Cinco de Mayo dinner is fast approaching. Don't forget men, Mother's Day is the 16th. Ralph VanOcker and Juan Salazar have been elected as delegates to the KofC State Convention at Mackinaw Island at the end of the month. It's a tough job but someone has to do it. In June, July, and August our meetings will be held at John Browns house and that means good food and good company. All members are welcome, and I encourage everyone who has not been coming to the meetings or has not come in awhile to come and get reacquainted. Officer elections will be held in June. Father's Day is June 20th. Then it will be time to start gearing up for the planning of the Danish Festival food booth.

Vivat Jesus
Dan Wolf
